End-of-Life Pathway

Dignified, Compassionate Care in the Comfort of Your Own Home
Offered through the Support at Home Program by Angels in Aprons

Support When It Matters Most

Facing the end of life can be deeply emotional — for you and for your loved ones. At Angels in Aprons, we believe everyone deserves the chance to spend their final months with dignity, in familiar surroundings, and surrounded by care and kindness.

What Is the End-of-Life Pathway?

Part of the government's Support at Home program, this pathway offers short-term, high-level care for older people with a life expectancy of less than three months who wish to remain at home. It provides fast, flexible, and compassionate support that complements existing palliative care by covering everyday aged care needs with dignity and ease.

Key Features

✓ Flexible Funding

- Receive up to $25,000 in support
- Available over a 16-week period
- Covers personal care, nursing, domestic assistance, transport, equipment, and more
- Helps reduce financial stress for families during a difficult time

✓ Holistic Care Planning

- A personalised care plan is created with you and your family
- Your values, wishes, and comfort guide all aspects of your care
- Coordinated by a compassionate team of nurses and Care Angels

✓ Rapid Access to Services

- Assessments and approvals are prioritised
- Services can begin within days, not weeks

Am I Eligible?

You may be eligible if you:

- Have been diagnosed with a life expectancy of three months or less (you can reapply after 3 months if required)
- Have an aged care assessment indicating you meet clinical criteria

Here for You and Your Loved Ones

At Angels in Aprons, we're honoured to support people and families through this journey — with empathy, respect, and dedicated care.
